A GREAT VICTORY.

It is a splendid Republican victory. It is ringing and reverberating over a whole continent.

The people of this country have spoken in unmistakable tones for honest money, protection, law and order and the conservative principles that have made our country great. McKinleyism has triumphed over Bryanism and Altgeldism.

What the majority is cannot yet be known. But it is enough—enough to kill repudiation and all attempts at national dissolution.

The central West has struck hands with the East in loyalty to right principles. The war West and South will soon be glad that this has happened.

The whole nation is best in this victory. "The American people may be trusted with their own."

THE JOLLIFICATION.

It is a time for all good citizens to rejoice. A great victory for national honesty and honor has been gained.

North Adams and vicinity are in the rejoicing spirit, and have not aside tonight as a time for jollification. All are invited to participate and take some part, either by marching, making a joyful noise or by illuminating.

If it does not rain, then let North Adams tonight put on its gala attire and turn out to help celebrate the great McKinley victory.

Henry Cady made a handsome run and nearly won. But the old Republican party was a stone wall. It couldn't be broken. Now, Mr. Cady, stay a Republican. We have room for you in the party that elects men to the legislature from North Adams.

Old-line Republicans in North Adams! You voted right Tuesday; why not vote with the same party right along? Isn't it better than the "New Democracy"?

Where are the "New Democrats" who were to swallow up the Republican party in North Adams? Poor Republican dummies! We have only pity for them now. "Nothing of the dead unless good."

We believe the defeat of biennials to be a mistake—a waste of money and time and a too frequent disturbance of business and worry to state officers must now continue.

The poor editor everywhere! He has to work while others play after election, and his soul is of a playful nature too.

TRAVELLER'S GUIDE.

Williams was not only snowed under but frozen in a political glacier. Perhaps it is not extravagant to say that he has made a fool of himself for all time.

The solid South has gone, so has Bryan gone—up to the Salt river. Popercrats have gone up everywhere with the Republican explosion.

Where is the great "new issue" of the "New Democracy"? That new born thing was too new. Exit with Bryanism and curtain falls.

The TRANSCRIPT appealed to the Republicans to stick to their party nominees. They did it for all necessary purposes.

Did Mr. Wright and Senator Lawrence win in a walk? No, they won in a stand still—the Democracy standing still.

Honor to millions of patriotic Democrats who helped the Republicans win this glorious victory.

Was the extra TRANSCRIPT this morning to be compared with any other Berkshire extra?

Ward 1 appreciates a victory. The boys from there were following it up this morning.

You may own the city tonight, Republicans. "Whoop it up" to the very sky.

Did a single candidate that the TRANSCRIPT supported get left? Not a one.

The latest this morning make us anxious but McKinley is elected all the same.

Massachusetts majority is what the land of the Pilgrims ought to give.

"The New Democracy" did not win. We thought it would not.

Any kind of a noise and the loudest kind of yell is now in order.

It is a great commentary on the good sense of the American people.

Remember that loyal, honest Democrats helped elect McKinley.

A. E. Hall of Williamstown was all right. He deserved to be.

We all take a long breath and the political fever is broken.

Mr. Crane's vote in Berkshire was simply overwhelming.

The great and good sense of the American people did it.

The TRANSCRIPT bulletins gave the people the good news.

Anarchism and allied isms are pale and sickly today.

Oh, the TRANSCRIPT feels "awfully" good today.

Magenis was all right, and Richmond was righter.

We wish that we had more eagles and roosters.

The TRANSCRIPT feels pretty well, thank you.

Mr. Richmond was first choice for the legislature.

Class hatred does not pay as a political card.

Altgeldism and Tillmanism to the rear.

Get into the Republican parade tonight.

Snake hands, Republicans, all round.

Chicago and New York shook hands.

Mr. Bryan was honest but wrong.

Now Bryan may keep still.

It is McKinley all over.

Now for good times.

Oh, what glory!

The Transcript Extra.

Over 5000 copies of the TRANSCRIPT extra were sold this morning, and our press had to renew its labors three several times. This extra issue contained more election news edited in proper form, than any paper ever before published in Berkshire county on a morning succeeding election.

The TRANSCRIPT, besides being grateful at this result, also acknowledges the many kind thanks received for its bulletins read on Main street last night.

Exercises at Notre Dame.

Some very entertaining exercises took place at the Notre Dame church Sunday afternoon to celebrate the feast of St. Charles, patron saint of Rev. Father Jeanotte. The program was as follows: Psalm; dialogue, "Three Hys" by Misses Albina Garard, Mary L. LeBel and Aurora L. Heuroux; address, Philip Clement; English dialogue, "Heart Gems," Misses Georgia Lafortune, Rosa Adams, Josephine Roy, Antoinette Remoinard, Alice Perrault, Emma Veins, Mary A. Barbeau, Jennie Lloyd, Delphine Giroux, Eva Brodeur, and Angelina Renard. A recitation given by Charles Granger, and an English welcome song completed the program.

The Dog Show.

The Dog show opens tomorrow morning at Odd Fellows hall and continues three days. There has been an unusual large number of entries, which include the finest blooded dogs in Western Massachusetts. The show is to be hoped will have a large patronage as it is hoped to have this an annual event. A complete list of entries will appear in this paper tomorrow night. Doors open each day from 10 o'clock a. m. to 10 p. m. Entries will be taken until show opens.

Of No Avail.

While a party of excited young Republicans were passing along Holden street at an early hour this morning, contributing to the din on the street, some unsympathetic individual in the Blackinton block emptied a pail full of water onto the crowd. The effect produced was no more than would have been caused by the falling of dew.

ALL REPUBLICANS.

Ward One Overflows with Enthusiasm. Both Mills were Closed.

VICTORY KNOWS NO RESTRAINT.

Plans Made for a Rousing Demonstration Tonight. To Assemble at Monument Square. Everybody Invited to Celebrate.

The voters in Blackinton could not stand confinement with such a victory theirs, and when the employees in the mill went to work they one and all decided to close up shop for the day and celebrate.

With a drum corps, transparencies, new brooms, horns and flags, the 175 from Blackinton started for Main street. A call was made upon Edward Meekins at the Greylock mill, and a short speech heard. Fully aroused to the occasion, the joyous troop came along to the Braytonville mill. That mill was at once closed and the ranks of the paraders were swelled by over 100.

The cheering crowd swooped onto Main street and received a hearty welcome. Congressman Wright, Representative Richmond and Senator Lawrence were called upon at their homes and given rousing receptions. Short speeches were in order. Representative-elect Magen was found in his office in Kimball block and responded to the call for a speech very gladly.

Mr. Richmond had two special cars sent up and the West End voters were taken home in style.

Tonight's Demonstration.

Major Hought and his staff busied themselves all the forenoon arranging a grand demonstration for this evening. All the campaign clubs are coming out in full force and fully uniformed. Citizens are asked to participate and the night will be made one long to be remembered.

The meeting place will be at Monument Square and everything that can be used for noise making should be brought along.

Massachusetts

[Early this Morning.]

Boston, 12 o'clock.—From the report of the vote up to the present time McKinley's majority is estimated at 124,000, the largest ever given in the state.

The republicans have made heavy gains in every city and town, although the vote for governor falls somewhat behind that for the presidential candidate. The Democratic gold vote is about 3 per cent.

Bryan and Williams run very close throughout the state. The congressional delegation is unchanged, twelve Republicans and one democrat. The legislature will be more strongly Republican than ever.

Every City and Town.

The Republican candidates for president and governor have carried every city and town for the first time in the history of the state.

Its Magnitude.

Never before in the history of the Bay state has there been such a decided sentiment in favor of one of the great political parties. The nearest approach to such an enormous majority was at the 1872 election when the Grant electors had 74,000 plurality.

Farmers Not Fooled.

The Republican gains were heaviest in the small towns, notwithstanding the appeal to the farmer's vote made by the Democratic orators. The weakness of the Democratic gold vote was another feature of the present election the national Democratic candidates having obtained only about the 3 per cent of the total vote, the amount necessary to retain a place on the state ticket at the next election.

They Fell Together.

It was expected that Williams would run somewhat behind Bryan in the state, but in all the towns and nearly every city the Dedham statesman was neck and neck with his leader and went down with him under a storm of ballots.

The Preacher Wins.

Congressman John F. Fitzgerald will continue to hold his place as the only democratic congressman from New England. The only contest of interest was that in the 9th and 10th district, although in the former, the stronghold of the democracy, the Republicans had but little hope. The fight in the latter was very keen between Rev. S. J. Barrows and Alderman Boardman Hall. Mr. Barrows won by a good margin.

Heavier Than Ever.

The legislature will be as usual Republican in both branches, but this year there will be a heavier majority than ever before. The election was a quiet one, but few disturbances being reported, while the fine weather enabled nearly 90 per cent of the total registration to be polled.

Boston, 1 o'clock.—One hundred towns out of 321 in Massachusetts give Bryan 7,000, McKinley 27,558, Palmer 1,078. Same towns in 1892 gave Cleveland 15,903, Harrison 21,965, a Republican gain of 13,221. If the percentage of gain continues in places not reported the Republican majority will be about 87,500.

Biennials are Defeated in the State by a Number of Thousand Votes.

Chairman Lyman of Boston, at 3 o'clock this morning, says the Republican victory in the nation is a land slide.

No Evening School.

There will be no session of the public evening school tonight, in order that the scholars may give vent to their enthusiasm in the big demonstration.

The Situation.

[Early this Morning.]

At 4 o'clock this morning the Associated Press has made the following careful and conservative survey of the situation.

Delaware is claimed by both parties and is apparently in dispute, although the plurality is not likely to exceed 1,000. The returns from the West are not sufficient to justify the claims of either party. Ohio has given a very large Republican plurality and Kentucky is apparently assured to the McKinley column.

Later returns may not justify this claim. Tennessee seems to have been carried for Bryan, notwithstanding the confident assertions to the contrary of the Republican managers, and the same is probably true of North Carolina, Indiana and Michigan.

At 2.30 a. m. the returns from the various states indicate the election of 209 Republican congressmen and 65 Democrats. No returns have been received from Alabama, California, Delaware, Kansas, Missouri or Washington. The present complexion of the house is 244 Republicans, 105 Democrats, 6 Populists and one Silver party man.

In Minnesota there are indications of heavy Republican gains and a strong probability that they have gone for McKinley.

Illinois will give McKinley over 100,000 plurality and Nebraska and North and South Dakota are very close and still in doubt.

Wyoming seems to have gone for McKinley. The returns from the Pacific coast states are too meagre to satisfy any claim. The states of Virginia, South Carolina, Florida, Georgia, Alabama, Arkansas, Missouri, Louisiana, Colorado, Nevada, Montana and Idaho may safely be placed in the Bryan column.

The returns from Kansas and Texas are scattering and indicate nothing, although heavy Republican gains are reported from Dallas and Galveston at 12.30. Later returns seem to indicate that West Virginia, Kentucky and Michigan can be added to the Republican column.

The following states are conceded at Republican headquarters to Bryan: Alabama, Arkansas, Colorado, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nevada.

California and South Dakota are claimed by the Republicans although the returns are too meagre to justify the assertion that they are sure for McKinley.

These states are admitted to be doubtful: Washington, Kansas, Nebraska, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia. At 3 o'clock word was received at the Republican headquarters that Arthur Sewall, the Democratic candidate for Vice-President, had announced that he was willing to concede the election to McKinley. "We are in for four years more of government by injunction," he said.

CHICAGO, Ill., 3 o'clock.

It is estimated that the majorities at this hour are Georgia 35,000 for Bryan; Kentucky 12,000 for McKinley; West Virginia 13,000 for McKinley; South Carolina 45,000 for Bryan; Virginia 15,000 for Bryan; Maryland 29,750 for McKinley; Florida 10,000 for Bryan; Nebraska 2,000 for McKinley; California 3,000 for Bryan. North Carolina is in doubt. The Democrats claim it by 10,000 to 20,000 and the Republicans claim it by 8,000 to 10,000.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., 3 o'clock.

Chairman Sam Roberts of the Republican committee, after midnight gave out the following: "Kentucky has gone for McKinley by a larger majority than it gave Bradley last year. Early returns indicate 15,000 to 20,000 majority."

RICHMOND, Va., 3.45

The returns received here up to 1 a. m. indicate the Democrats have carried Virginia by 20,000.

CHICAGO, Ill., 2.30

This morning claimed that the next congress will stand Republicans 233, Democrats 111, and 13 made up of Populists and Free Silver Republicans.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., 3.45

Bryan and Sewall carry Florida by a majority over McKinley closely estimated at 13,000 to 14,500.

The Republican state committee sent the following telegram to Mark Hanna from Indianapolis, Ind., at a very late hour.

"Indiana will give McKinley a plurality of 30,000.

LOGAL RESULTS.

Biggest Kind of Republican Gains. Richmond and Magenis Elected. How the News Was Received. Enthusiasm on the Streets. Full Tabulated Votes of this City and Other Towns.

The voters of this city did their duty Tuesday, casting 3078 votes out of a total registration of about 3400. As was stated in Tuesday evening's paper, the business of the day was very quietly transacted.

There were gatherings in all the club rooms, at the board of trade, at the Y. M. C. A. rooms, at Pythian hall and various other places where the returns were received, lunches served, etc., and at Odd Fellows' hall the figures were thrown upon a canvas with a stereopticon.

Notwithstanding all of these accommodations there was an immense crowd on Main street to hear the returns as they were delivered by the TRANSCRIPT's megaphone, which was handled by Harry Browne on the balcony of the Wilson. The announcements were distinctly heard all up and down the street and were received with cheers. When the vote of North Adams was given and there was the wildest enthusiasm, and the TRANSCRIPT was asked to announce through the megaphone that the members of the artillery company were requested to assemble at their rooms on State street. They did so promptly and soon reappeared in a body with their cannon and paraded the streets while the people shouted, the cannon boomed, bon-fires blazed, horns were tooted and there was no room to doubt that there had been an election.

The megaphone service was pronounced excellent by all and the TRAN-SCRIPT was freely complimented for its enterprise in that direction. Along toward midnight the crowd began to melt away and the electric cars to Adams and Williamstown were crowded with people from those towns who had been here to get the returns.

The chief interest locally centered in the representative contest. The results, with the pluralities of the winning candidates, will be found in the election tables on this page.

WRIGHT'S HOME VOTE.

He Makes Handsome Gains in His Own City and Vicinity.

Congressman Wright has reason to feel proud of the gains he made in his home city and other towns in Northern Berkshire over the vote he received two years ago. In North Adams he received 1850 votes against 1622 two years ago, a gain of 228. Two years ago Mr. Green, his opponent, received 641 votes in the city, and this year Mr. Sheehan, the Democratic candidate, received 639, a loss of two. The town of Florida went solid for Wright, with the exception of two votes for Bascom, the prohibition candidate.
Wright gained 47 Clarksburg, 44 in Cheshire, 53 in Adams, 67 in Dalton, 6 in Peru and 56 in Williamstown.

Mr. Wright's majority in the district is estimated at 14,000.

The Florida Vote

Florida gave McKinley 56, Bryan 33, Palmer 2, Wolcott 57, Williams 3, Callahan 1, McConnell 2, Lawrence 52, West 2, Whipple 6, Cande 48, Smith 3, Van Deusen 6, Wood 50, Smith 2, Churchill 2.

Wright 57, Bascom 3, Sheehan 0.
